

Important Information

Important Notice – Information we need to know about

When we ask you any questions or ask for information, you must take care to provide accurate and complete information. This is because in deciding to accept this policy, and in setting the terms including the premium, we have relied upon the information which you have provided to us.

What if you give incorrect information?

If you were careless

If we establish that you carelessly provided us with untrue or misleading information, we will have the following rights:

1. If we would not have provided you with cover, we can treat this policy as if it never existed, refuse to pay any claims and return the premium you have paid.
2. If we would have provided you with cover on different terms, we can treat this policy as if it had been entered into on different terms from those agreed.
3. We can reduce the amount we pay on any claim in the proportion that the premium you have paid bears to the premium we would have charged you, if we would have charged you more.

We will notify you in writing if any of these options apply. It is possible that 2 and 3 may both apply.

Where either applies, we will give you notice that we will treat this policy and any future claim in accordance with 2 and/or 3, in which case you may then give us notice that you are terminating this policy.

If you were deliberate or reckless

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided us with untrue or misleading information we will have the right to:

- treat this policy as if it never existed; and
- decline all claims; and
- keep the premium.

Fraud

If you, or anyone acting for you, makes a fraudulent claim, for example a loss which is fraudulently caused and/or exaggerated and/or supported by a fraudulent statement or other device:

1. we will not be liable to pay the claim; and
2. we may recover from you any sums paid by us to you in respect of the claim; and
3. we may by notice to you treat this policy as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

If we exercise our right under 3 above:

- we shall not be liable to you in respect of a relevant event which happens after the time of the fraudulent act.
- A relevant event is whatever gives rise to our liability under this policy (such as the occurrence of a loss, the making of a claim, or the notification of a potential claim); and
- we need not return any of the premium paid.

We use your Personal Information for a number of purposes including providing our products and services and for fraud prevention.

We also use profiling and other data analysis to understand our customers better, e.g. what kind of content or products would be of most interest, and to predict the likelihood of certain events arising, e.g. to assess insurance risk or the likelihood of fraud.

This helps insurers check information and prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance we may search these registers.

 - Claims management – In the event of a claim we may need to disclose information with any other party involved in that claim, e.g. third parties involved in the incident, their insurer, solicitor or representative and medical teams, the police or other investigators. We also may have to investigate your claims and conviction history;
 - Complaints management – If you make a complaint about the service we have provided, we may be obliged to forward details about your complaints, including your Personal Information, to the relevant ombudsman;
 - Information about your insurance policy will be added to the Motor Insurance Database (“MID”) managed by the MIB. MID and the data stored on it may be used by certain statutory and/or authorised bodies including the police, the DVLA in Great Britain, the Driver and Vehicle Agency Northern Ireland, the Insurance Fraud Bureau and other bodies permitted by law. Individuals who may be citizens of other countries or their appointed representatives making a claim in respect of a road traffic accident may also obtain relevant information which is held on the MID. It is vital that the MID holds your current registration number. If it is incorrectly shown on the MID you are at risk of having your vehicle seized by the police and/or a fixed penalty notice.

You can check that your current registration number details are shown on the MID at www.askmid.com. For details relating to information held about you by the DVLA please visit <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/driver-and-vehicle-licensing-agency>.
